Dr. Luther H. Evans, Librarian
Library of Congress
Washington, D. C.

My dear Dr. Evans:

I wish to thank you for the very valuable assistance given by your office in the preparation of reports which Central Intelligence Agency has submitted to the President's Air Policy Commission.

As you know, your office prepared a report on civil aviation policies in pre-war Germany. We felt that all of the information demonstrated a high standard of analytical treatment. It met our requirements fully, and we are confident that the President's Air Policy Commission will be pleased with your contribution. We have specifically informed the Commission of the part which you took in the preparation of the report.

Sincerely,

25X1
